CSU CENTRAL SANSKRIT UNIVERSITY

THE PROBLEM

Ayurveda has become a science of textbooks

Today's practitioners know the theory. They have lost the tactile, flesh-and-bone understanding of the human machine.

Healing is prescribed rather than physically grasped. We have produced theoretical experts who are disconnected from how a body actually breaks and mends.

The ban of 1804

The British ban dismantled the Kalari Gurukulams that held these disciplines together, and split the Vaidya from the Kalari master. Temples were taken over. The Gurukulams that ran on temple revenue were starved out.

Temples were taken over. The Gurukulams that ran on temple revenue were starved out.

MARMA CHIKITSA

The ancient science of the body's vital points was once part of Ayurveda. Today it survives only in the Kalari lineages.

What survived was the text. What was lost was the transmission through muscle, movement and breath.

Guru Veerasree Sami Gurukkal Ayurveda Gurukulam

A Gurukulam designed to create warrior-healers with a strong foundation in embodied healing capacity and not just scriptural knowledge.

Seven and a half years in residence with Gurus, studying Kalaripayattu, Ayurvedic scriptures and healing as one education, leaving with a recognised qualification in Ayurveda.

Guru Veerasree Sami Gurukkal

KALARIPAYATTU GURUKKAL

KALARI MARMA AND AYURVEDA CHIKITSAK

MASTER OF TANTRA VIDYA

Guru Veerasree Sami Gurukkal was a seeker, practitioner and master of the ancient Kalaripayattu tradition.

It became his life's work, to study, preserve and embody the ancient learnings of the Kalaripayattu martial art, the Kalari Chikitsa healing practice and the spiritual study of Tantra Shaastra.

A Living Field of Practice

1950s

Hindustan Kalari Sangam

Founded in the 1950s by Guru Veerasree Sami Gurukkal a Temple for Kalaripayattu, Kalari Chikitsa and Ayurveda.

2010

Phasing is what makes a ₹-crore ask fundable rather than aspirational.

THE LAND

Calicut, Kerala

The campus site where the residential Gurukulam, Ayurveda college, and hospital are taking shape.

INVITATION

To Build the Next Chapter

GVS Gurukulam is an investment into a living lineage - and in the people who carry it forward.

We seek Patrons, Funding Partners, Institutions, Researchers and Collaborators who share our Vision.

Support will enable campus development, teaching and healing infrastructure, research, practitioner network and long-term sustainability.

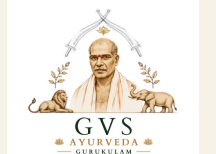

The goal is not simply to build facilities, but to establish an enduring ecosystem for knowledge, health and service.

USE OF FUNDS

The Ask

The ask, with use-of-funds broken by line, and what each tranche unlocks.

Funding Options

Kalarigram is building GVS Ayurveda Gurukulam, a residential campus in Calicut — combining traditional Kalaripayattu training with an NCISM-track Ayurveda college and an attached hospital.

Licensed Ayurvedic Hospital — already open and treating patients on our Calicut campus today. Kalarigram is a registered Trust.
